The Perfect Real Estate Career

Most real estate agents, even the successful ones, have seen how tough the day-to-day grind is in this business. They take it with a shrug and pound down another cup of gut-busting coffee. Everybody hates their job at least once in a while, right? But what if a company could offer all of the good and almost none of the bad to your real estate career - would you be interested? At Open Door Auctions, we're betting that there are a few forward-thinking agents out there who, like founder and successful agent/investor Jason Hartman, aren't afraid to take a good, hard look at the industry and think, "This could be so much better."

You're right. It could be so much better. In fact, it is when you decide to leave the old-fashioned real estate method behind and embrace your future right now. How? Partner with Open Door Auctions.

The Least Work

Nobody's calling anyone lazy, but who among us wouldn't prefer to work less and earn more? If you're one who prefers their work life arranged the other way around, please accept our humble apology and enjoy the struggle. At this point, it might be a good idea for you to back away from the computer because we're going to be talking about more reward with less effort from here on out.

The innovative Open Door Auctions two-week sales process is designed to benefit everyone: buyer, seller and real estate agent. Those who know about such things realize this is a drastic departure from the industry standard which, as far as we can tell, was specifically invented to antagonize all parties involved and create as much frustration and conflict of interests as humanly possible for all involved.

How would you like to remove these from your daily chore list:

1. Prospecting/cold calling? We provide all the leads.
2. Price haggling? The market (auction) sets the price, fast.
3. Open houses and broker previews? The auction is the only open house - virtually every one is a sale.
4. Driving buyers around? All bids are submitted at the auction or online.
5. Annoying dinnertime phone calls? This is a business-hours only business model.

We could go on longer with the list of hated real estate chores that an Open Door Auctions partnership could permanently remove from your life, but you get the point.

The Most Money

We've established how the Open Door Auctions model will have you working less; the interesting aspect to the scenario is there's a good chance you'll be earning a lot more money and receiving it much faster. That's exciting news for agents who have acquired a level of learned tolerance to the interminable sales process. You have to keep a dozen irons in the fire at all times in the hope that a few will eventually turn into actual sales. This constant juggling act and the accompanying financial stress is a prescription for a host of problems from heart attack to ulcers to family neglect to divorce to personal bankruptcy and workaholism.

Open Door Auctions makes the financial side of real estate sales a breeze. Remember, this new approach to real estate means that you can expect a better, more consistent payday since your next is never more than two weeks away. Nobody hates a long listing more than the agent who has to wake up and look at it sitting on his or her computer screen every morning for months or sometimes years at a time.

Stop the Insanity

We'll be the first to say that partnering with Open Door Auctions is not the best choice for every real estate agent. We only need vibrant, excited agents who realize that "but we've always done it this way" is not a good reason to continue ad infinitum. The bottom line is that the real estate industry has been broken and dysfunctional for a long time. At Open Door Auctions, we've decided to fix it. If you want to be part of the revolution, work less, earn more and provide a better customer experience while dramatically improving your quality of life, join The Open Door Auctions Team at www.OpenDoorAuctions.com to claim your own dream real estate career and get your life back today.
